10 AM—8 PM Monday—Thursday
10 AM—5 PM Friday & Saturday

The Library will be closed Nov. 27th and will close at 5PM on Nov 26th.

There's nothing like a chilly autumn afternoon spent wrapped in a scarf, sipping cider, and browsing the library shelves for a good book.

Come check out our newest selections of novels as we prepare for the snowy winter months.

Important News

Book Signing with Lillian Lyle, Saturday November 29 @ 2PM

Meet the Author

Lillian Lyle is an indie romance author living in Chicago. Lillian grew up in the Shenango Valley, graduating from Sharon High School far too long ago for comfort, where she loved to play soccer, sing on stage with her fellow Tiger Kittens, and take long walks around Buhl Park. When she's back home in Sharon, Lillian loves to enjoy brunch at Valley Kitchen, ice cream from the Corral, and a plenty of queso at La Isla. She's a lover of sports and romance and prefers to fall into a good book rather than for a mediocre man on Hinge. When she's not nose to the keyboard in a local coffee shop - or hiding her AO3 tags from the public view - she's slaving away in an excel spreadsheet for her day job.

In Tribute to Vicki Lingner "The Storytelling Lady"

The Library would like to pay a great tribute to Vicki Lingner, who passed last month. Vicki was a great part of our children's programming over the years and entertained us with countless stories. We are so thankful that Vicki shared her wonderful story-telling with us!
