Important News

Spaces Available for Use

When looking for a space to use or rent, whether for personal or business purposes we have them available for you.

We have available:

- Large Community Room with a projector screen
- STEAM Lounge
- Private rooms for 1-on-1

For more information about renting and using one of these rooms please contact CLSV at 724-981-4360.

Home Schoolers – Brand New Format – “Curiosity Cove”

As a way to welcome new Home Schoolers, the CLSV would love to have you experience a relaxed atmosphere and join in conversation with other members to the newly formed “Curiosity Cove.” Beginning on Monday, January 26, we will hold a time for all Home School families from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. to meet and get to know other members in the group. Educational Resource Center materials will be provided, along with a sharing of emails and ideas for your young students.

This group will meet once a month on the third Monday of each month except during the summer. If you have any questions and wish to know more about Curiosity Cove, please contact Miss Michelle at 724-981-4360 x104. We look forward to enriching your children’s learning experience.

Display Your Art/Collection Here!!

We want to see YOUR work!

Here at CLSV we are always looking to display masterpieces created by the incredible talent in our community. Whether you have paintings, photos or a collection, we would love to have it on display.

We have a display case and display wall that are used to show off your fantastic creations. Exhibits are on display for a month at the library before being taken down.

Together, let's create a space to inspire, connect, and support one another.

For more information please contact CLSV at 724-981-4360.
